Community Health Plan of Washington

Health coverage for every age
and stage of life

Your local partners in health

For more than 30 years, Community Health Plan of Washington (CHPW) has been serving Washington residents with quality health care.

Why Washington? We live here. We're deeply rooted in the communities we serve, because they're our communities, too.

Our local connections support your whole health—through food banks, mental health services, help with utilities, and more. Plus, all our plans include one-on-one support from trained staff. You're never alone.

What our members have to say

Perla, 27
Apple Health (Medicaid)

A new mom with an unstable home and few supportive people in her life. She'd just had a baby, and needed help with mental health, transportation, and housing. CHPW's team helped her get the care and resources she needed.

"Thank you again so much. Your program is hands-down the best thing I have ever seen offered to people in my position, and you guys go beyond that. I have received far more than just help."

Yuusuf, 67
Medicare Advantage

Yuusuf had complex medical needs—but he also had our team on his side. CHPW's Case Management team helped him schedule podiatrist and colonoscopy appointments, and arranged for his medications to be delivered to his home.

"I feel a pressure has been lifted off my shoulders ... I feel comfortable, finally, about my health care."

*Amount can change every year. Talk to our enrollment specialists to see if you qualify. Eligible members can earn up to $200 in total rewards per year. †On Dual Complete plan. Dual Select covers $1,250 a year.
